

North South University
CSE-225L (Data Structure Lab)
Fall 2020

Course Code:
CSE-225L

Instructor:

Mayamin Hamid Raha

Email: mayamin.raha@northsouth.edu

Syllabus: Similar to your theory class syllabus.

Class and Course Policy:

- 1) DO NOT EVER BE LATE IN THE CLASS.
- 2) All of you MUST have your own northsouth account.

You will need this gmail account to access the Google Classroom for exam purposes and assignment submission as well.

- 3) No make-up quizzes.
- 4) No make-up midterm exam/ final exam will be allowed unless it's a medical/ family emergency.
  - In both of the cases, you'll need explicit permission from the faculty of the associated theory class to sit for any kind of make-up exams.
  - Also, in case of make-up exams due to medical reasons - you'll need to provide copy of valid medical documents (prescriptions and/ or test reports, etc.) along with your application.

'Academic Honesty' policies:

- 1) Honest academic behaviour will be of utmost importance. Any form of dishonest academic behaviour (copying of source codes, cheating during exams/ lab-evaluations) will be very harshly dealt.
- 2) In such cases of academic dishonesties, the person copying and the person letting copy his/ her code/ work, will be awarded zero as assignment/ quiz/ exam score.

Suspiciously similar code structure/ variable names/ solving techniques will be considered 'copy' works.
- 3) Repeating offenders will be forwarded to the NSU Disciplinary Committee.

Percentage Breakdown of Grade Calculation:

Topic	Allotted Percentage
Attendance	10%
Assignment	15%
Lab Tasks	5%
Lab Quiz	10%
Lab Midterm	30%
Lab Final	20%
Final Project	10%
Total	100

Grading Policy:

NSU grading policy will be followed for determining your letter grade based on your overall numerical score.
